groups

Erwin McManus @ The Global Leadership Summit—2 Kings 13:14-19

-Erwin McManus opens his message by saying that the greatest battles are the ones that rage _____.

-He then states that all of us have this sense (or fear) that we might have our final cause of death as _____

-In his book, McManus wrote: "So I need to tell you before you hear it from someone else that I'm dying. But _____

How Do We Not Settle For A Life That Is Less Than What God Intended?

1) Your Freedom Is on The Other Side of Your _____

2) Your Greatness Is on The Other Side of Your _____

3) Your Future Is on The Other Side of Your _____

-McManus adds: "I wanted God to meet me in my faith and He met me in my _____."

-"Your faith doesn't make life easier. Your faith makes you _____."

Questions For Discussion

1) Do you think "the greatest battles we fight might be the ones that rage within our souls?" Give an example of how that could be true in your life?
2) Does everyone have a fear of "drowning in mediocrity" or not achieving the greatness they are capable of? Where might this fear come from?
3) Where does this fear emerge in your life?
4) What are the things that can keep our lives locked in mediocrity?
5) Which of the three points above did you most need to hear and why?
6) What is one point of application that you want to take from this message?