For Further Thought or Discussion

- 1) Is it true that every person in their lives is capable of the greatest good and also the worst evil at the same time? Why is this the case?
- 2) In Psalm 81, God is lamenting or mourning over the nation of Israel. What was God mourning here?
- 3) Does God desire outward obedience from His people? What is His greater desire for us?
- 4) If we know disobedience is a waste of our life, why do we sometimes choose to disobey?
- 5) In what ways does God bless us when we are obedient to Him?
- 6) What are other applications you could take from this week’s message?
