- 1) To _____ His Life-Giving Power
- 2) To _____ His Life-Giving Power

For Further Thought or Discussion

- 1) Do you think the apostle Paul is qualified to address the difficulties of your life? Why or why not?
- 2) What is the treasure that Paul is writing about in this passage and where is it located?
- 3) Believers in Jesus are compared to “jars of clay” in this passage. Can you relate to that analogy? What do you like about it? What don’t you like?
- 4) Why would God store something so valuable in a container so ordinary?
- 5) How might others around you see God’s power through your weakness?
- 6) What other applications or action steps could you take from this week’s message?
