For Further Thought or Discussion

- 1) If you could take a magic wand and magically change anything about yourself, what would you change?
- 2) What do Scriptures like Psalm 139:13-16 say about your value to God?
- 3) What might cause us to reject the truth about our valuableness? Share a story of how someone either helped you accept or reject your God-given SHAPE.
- 4) What does SHAPE stand for? What do you like or dislike about this definition?
- 5) How does accepting God's love connect to discovering and accepting our SHAPE?
- 6) Before diving into specifics in the weeks ahead, what could you say that God has shaped you for? What purpose?
- 7) What other applications or action steps could you take from this week's message?
